Parking Fee Waiver for the Urban Land Institute

The Urban Land Institute, Los Angeles District Council (ULI LA), is a non-profit organization which members include professionals and policy leaders who initiate research to forecast land use trends and issues. On March 16, 2011, ULI LA will present "Urban Marketplace 2011" at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, the only event of its kind committed to supporting development and revitalization of the inner city. Panelists, speakers, and roundtable leaders will identify issues and obstacles related to financing projects in the inner city.

ULI LA has asked that the Board of Supervisors waive a portion of the parking fee for attendees of the event, estimated to be approximately $4,000 ($10.00 for 400 vehicles).

I THEREFORE MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Waive one half of the parking fee per vehicle to allow for a reduced parking rate at the Music Center Garage in the amount of $4,000, excluding the cost of liability
